

List of workshops and conferences organized by the RatSWD since its foundation in 2004

Event Format	Title	Date, Location	Organizers
Expert Workshop	Second Workshop: Developing the Research Data Infrastructure for the Social and Behavioral Sciences in Germany and Beyond: Progress since 2001, Current Situation, and Future Demands (60 participants)	October 11, 2008, Berlin	RatSWD
RatSWD Workshop for Young Scholars	The Analytical Potential of the Socio-Economic Panel (SOEP) (70 participants)	September 22–26, 2008, Duisburg-Essen	Chair of Social Stratification and Inequality, University of Duisburg-Essen (Stefan Liebig) in cooperation with Hans-Jürgen Andreß (University of Cologne), Martin Diewald (Bielefeld University), and Jürgen Schupp (DIW Berlin/Free University of Berlin). With the financial and organizational support of the RatSWD and DIW Berlin
Expert Workshop	First Workshop: Developing the Research Data Infrastructure for the Social and Behavioral Sciences in Germany and Beyond: Progress since 2001, Current Situation, and Future Demands (50 participants)	June 27, 2008, Berlin	RatSWD
Biannual Conference for Social and Economic Data (KSWD)	Fourth Conference for Social and Economic Data (250 participants)	May 11–12, 2008, Wiesbaden	RatSWD
RatSWD_Dialog Workshop	Foreign Trade in Times of Globalization: The Possibilities and Limitations of Statistical Measurements (150 participants)	April 22–23, 2008, Wiesbaden	RatSWD, the Federal Statistical Office, and the German Central Bank
Symposium	What would we like to know? Crime Statistics in Light of International Experience. (80 participants)	April 17–18, 2008, Berlin	RatSWD and the Center for Criminology (KrimZ)
Conference	Research with Data from Lower Saxony's Official Statistics (102 participants)	April 2–3, 2008, Hannover	RatSWD in collaboration with the Research Data Centers of the Statistical Offices of the Federation and the Länder, the Lower Saxony State Office of Statistics, the University of Hannover, and the University of Lüneberg
Meeting	Meeting of the Founding Committee of the International Data Forum (IDF) (15 participants)	February 4–5, 2008, Berlin	RatSWD
Conference	Arts and Figures—Humanities Scholars in the Workplace (80 participants)	November 27–28, 2007, Wiesbaden	Federal Statistical Office and the Research Data Center of the Federal Statistical Office / Introduction and Discussion of the Results from the Expert Reports Competition organized by the RatSWD, "Arts and Figures – Humanities Scholars in the Workplace"
RatSWD_Dialog Workshop	A Dialogue between the Sciences and Official Statistics on the Survey Program of the Official Household Sample in Germany (81 participants)	November 14, 2007, Mannheim	RatSWD in collaboration with GESIS-ZUMA
RatSWD Workshop for Young Researchers	Data Potential for Empirical Social Research: Working and Living in Germany (39 participants)	March 12–16, 2007, Nuremberg	RatSWD in collaboration with the Research Data Centers of the Statistical Offices of the Federation and the Länder and the Research Data Center of the German Federal Employment Agency at the IAB
RatSWD_Dialog Workshop	The Influence of the Scientific Community on the Compilation of Official Statistics with the 2010/2011 Census as Example (145 participants)	March 12, 2007, Wiesbaden	RatSWD
Conference	Benefits of Research Data and Data Services Centers for Policy, Data Providers, and the Sciences—Financial and Legal Aspects (75 participants)	February 9, 2007, Berlin	RatSWD
Expert Workshop	Data Problems in the Statistics on Crime and Criminal Justice (40 participants)	October 27, 2006, Berlin	RatSWD
Expert Workshop	Mass Media and Social Change: Long-Term Data and Analytical Perspectives (40 participants)	June 2, 2006, Berlin	RatSWD
Biannual Conference for Social and Economic Data (KSWD)	Third Conference for Social and Economic Data (260 participants)	May 11–12, 2006, Wiesbaden	RatSWD in conjunction with the Research Data Centers of the Federal Statistical Office and the Statistical offices of the Länder
Workshop	Continuous, Contemporary Labor Market Statistics from the Federal Statistical Office, following the ILO Concept (16 participants)	September 23, 2005, Berlin	RatSWD in conjunction with the Federal Statistical Office