

Third Workshop on Data Access
 Wednesday May 26 and Thursday May 27, 2010
 Kuenzel Room
 Michigan Union
 University of Michigan

Wednesday May 26, 2010

09:00-09:30 AM	Continental Breakfast
09:30-09:40 AM	Welcome and Introduction	Stefan Bender Maggie Levenstein Felix Ritchie
09:40-10:40 AM	The Philosophy of Data Access
	Building Researcher Access to Data on Science	Julia Lane, National Science Foundation and Nick Greenia, Internal Revenue Service, Statistics of Income Division
	Models of Risk in the Real World	Felix Ritchie, Office of National Statistics, UK
	SDS Security Philosophy	UK Data Archive, University of Essex
10:40-10:55 AM	Coffee Break
10:55-12:15 PM	National Technical Developments
	Access to Micro Data of Official Statistics for Research Purposes in Slovenia	Tomas Smrekar, Statistical Office of the Republic of Slovenia
	Survey on Access to African Government Microdata for Social Science Research	Lynn Woolfrey, DataFirst, University of Capetown
	Provision of Microdata in Japan	Seiji Takata, Statistics Bureau of Japan
	Danish Researchers Remote Access to Data in Statistics Denmark	Ivan Thaulow, Statistics Denmark

Third Workshop on Data Access
 Wednesday May 26 and Thursday May 27, 2010
 Kuenzel Room
 Michigan Union
 University of Michigan

12:15-01:20 PM	Lunch
01:20-02:20 PM	National Technical Developments (Continued)
	Dissemination of Public-use Microdata- A Survey of Current Australia Practices	Steven McEachern, Australian Social Science Archive
	Using the U.S. RDC Network to Enhance Internal Census Bureau Projects	Lynn Riggs and Ron Jarmin, U.S. Census Bureau
	The German Council for Social and Economic Data – Its Role for Germany and Europe	Denis Huschka, German Council for Social and Economic Data
02:20-03:00 PM	International Data Sharing I
	RDC in RDC Approach and Combining Data Sets – Developments in a German RDC	Joerg Heining and Stefan Bender, Institute for Employment Research (IAB) Germany
	Access to Official Microdata Sets in Europe and Germany	Markus Zwick and Patricia Eilberger, Federal Statistics Office, Germany
03:00-03:15 PM	Coffee Break
03:15-03:55 PM	International Data Sharing II
	International Data Sharing Via Standards	Felix Ritchie, Office of National Statistics, UK
	Data without Boundaries (DwB) – A new European project for better data access	Christof Wolf , Gesis Germany and Stefan Bender, Institute for Employment Research (IAB) Germany

Third Workshop on Data Access
Wednesday May 26 and Thursday May 27, 2010
Kuenzel Room
Michigan Union
University of Michigan

03:55-04:55 PM	Metadata
	Challenges and Opportunities of Creating DDI Documentation for Restricted Data	William Block, Cornell University
	Experiences in Producing Metadata for the German Microcensus	Christof Wolf , Gesis Germany
	Metadata and Infrastructure for Swedish Register Researchers	Claus-Goran Hjelm, Statistics Sweden
<hr/>
06:30 PM	Dinner
	University of Michigan Museum of Art Music provided by Royal Garden Trio
<hr/>
Thursday May 27, 2010
<hr/>
09:00-09:30 AM	Continental Breakfast
<hr/>
09:30-10:30 AM	Restricted Data in Open Settings
	You're in Good Hands: Data Protection Outside of Enclaves	Lisa Neidert, Population Studies Center, University of Michigan
	Experimenting in the Cloud: Restricted Use Data and the Amazon Cloud	Felicia LeClere and Bryan Beecher, ICPSR
	Confidentiality and Accessibility in Distributing Census Microdata in the IPUMS-International Project	Patricia Hall, Minnesota Population Center, University of Minnesota
<hr/>
10:30-10:45 AM	Coffee Break
<hr/>

Third Workshop on Data Access
Wednesday May 26 and Thursday May 27, 2010
Kuenzel Room
Michigan Union
University of Michigan

10:45-11:45 AM	Practicalities of Research Data Management
	Making More Effective Use of Restricted-Access Research Data Centers	John Abowd, Cornell University
	Guidelines for the Checking of Output in Research Data Centers	Jan Mol, Statistics Netherland
	Benefits of Providing Coordinated Access to Synthetic Data and the Underlying Confidential Microdata	Lars Vilhuber and Martha Stinson, Cornell University
<hr/>
11:45-01:30 PM	Lunch and Final Thoughts on 3rd WDA	Stefan Bender Maggie Levenstein Felix Ritchie
<hr/>		